

Trade Working Group

Terms of Reference

What is the Trade Working Group?

This Group, organised within EDANA, addresses all matters related to customs, tariffs, duties and trade for nonwovens and related products.

Mission

The scope and mission of this group is to deal with general, technical and regulatory issues related to customs and trade topics.

Objectives

- To coordinate activities and represent the interests of the nonwovens and related industries at global level
- To promote free and fair market conditions in order to support further business growth

Who should attend?

Any member of EDANA with an interest in customs and trade related issues.
Participation in a group is subject to the EDANA guidelines.

Benefits/deliverables

- Information on regulatory developments related to trade e.g. Free Trade Agreements
- Solve common customs issues
- Clarity on preferential and non-preferential rules of origin
- More adequate and flexible customs classification for nonwovens and related products and where appropriate, lower import duties

Related Groups

This group operates within the remit of the Outreach & Growth Steering Group.
